Cultivating Talent for Tomorrow:
2012 LULAC National Youth and Collegiate Symposium

- WHAT: Exclusive Orlando-area Youth and Collegiate Federal Career Symposium
- WHEN: Friday, June 29, 2012 from 8:30am – 4:00 pm
- COST: This event is FREE and includes lunch. RSVPs are mandatory for catering purposes.
- WHERE: Disney Coronado Springs Resort Orlando, FL
- WEBSITE: www.LULAC.org/convention

We invite all college and graduate-level students, as well as recent graduates, to attend this dynamic and informative event at no cost with lunch included (RSVPs are mandatory for catering purposes).

With low numbers of minority college graduates, we know that students need direct access to people who can help them succeed in this tough economy. That's why we host this event every year – so that you can get the answers you need one-on-one.

This symposium empowers students with information about diverse opportunities that exist within the federal government. Throughout the day, participants will interact with representatives from different federal agencies who will provide guidance regarding scholarships, internships and employment opportunities for current high school, college, and graduate students, as well as recent graduates who are seeking employment.

In addition to this one-day event, the 2012 LULAC National Convention is expected to draw over 20,000 attendees throughout the week. Mark your calendars for June 27-June 29 and attend the free events open to the general public, including policy workshops with expert panelists, a job fair, a fun and family-friendly expo hall, and a concert taking place on Saturday night. Entrance to the concert is free, but all guests must pick up a ticket on-site at the expo hall before Saturday.

Don't miss this fantastic opportunity! For more information, please contact Sara Clemente, LULAC National Director of Federal Affairs, at (202) 833-6130 or at SClemente@LULAC.org. Don't forget to tell a friend!

Sincerely,

Margaret Moran
